FLOOR DEBATE

February 9, 2006 LB 173

because they didn't get their gift given to the person they wanted to give it to. It will just go right to the merchant. If we're going to forgo that, isn't there some kind of time line where it's not permanent? How about the point at which a court would assume you were dead? Fair enough? Because that's what this language does.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Landis. You've heard the opening on FA434. Open for discussion. Senator Hudkins.

SENATOR HUDKINS: Thank you, Mr. President and members of the body. I would not be supportive of this particular amendment, but I would be glad to work with Senator Landis on something similar, between now and Select File. In the first case, I have the statute, 69-1317, and what he is proposing to do would conflict with those statutes. He talks about this money going...not going to the school fund. There are a set number of things that you have to do before this money does go to the state school fund. And so it's not as though, oh, you don't turn these...if you don't turn these gift certificates in, the school fund is not going to get their $25. Now, if the gift certificates are unclaimed, they normally do not have, for example...somewhere on my desk I have a gift card to Bed Bath and Beyond. It does not have my name on it, so how is the State Treasurer going to find me to give me back that money? Again, I would offer to Senator Landis, if he could refile this amendment on Select File, we could work on it and fix the differences in our opinions on it. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Hudkins. Senator Landis, you're recognized.

SENATOR LANDIS: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, I accept the notion of working on the language. I accept the fact that that's the case, that we can do better by writing this language. I certainly did that on the floor. Between now and Select File I'm not so sure of, since it's 12:02, thank you, and we would normally not move this bill in the middle of discussion. You know what? Here's the point, and it's one of the reasons I'm not crazy about giving up this position. It's quite true that upon the giving of the money to the Secretary of
